Charles Chikwakwanyi

There once was a boy
Within the boy lived a thousand thoughts Thoughts that grew in magnitude and direction as time evolved.
They created enthralling personalities within him which form a deeply flawed yet perfect man.

The boy had evolved into a man.
In a collection of poetry that reflects the man's innermost thoughts, the collections;

Adrift

A dark cloud hovers over my head,

Things are just going sideways

Like I'm cursed,

A deep hole in my stomach

Has formed,

A need, a hunger,

a certain greed

Has made a creed

With the insides

Of my corrupt heart,

I feel so empty

I feel so weak

What the heck

Is this?

Is it real?

I have lost myself
And found myself in you,
I have given up myself
And I have received you,

But why

Why can't I shake

The feeling off

That you might be

Taking me for a ride,

That I might be a fool?

Heavy is the heart

From beating for you

Heavy is the head

From thinking of you,

My shadow now weighs more

Than I do

I have only one question

Are we for Real?

Love is never enough

She wants more

Yet I have given

My heart and soul,

She wants more

She is an abyss

An insatiable hole

I have given myself whole

But to her...

She still wants more!

I do not know

How to answer her call

For I have done everything

In my power

Yet she still wants more

I guess what I have,

What I'm giving

Is not enough

*No wonder
She is in need
It's no miracle
It's no mistake,
That she wants more
Where can I get this Why am I here
What can I do
When you think
You have given it
Your all
And loved her Whole-souled?*

Creatures

Tiny

Rightly we are

We are tiny little critters,

Gigantic in our minds

We see ourselves

Huge

Yet we are so minute

How puffed up we are,

As we see ourselves

As the centre of world.

How silly it is

When I ask myself

“Why me?”

When I’m just an ant

Carrying a big chunk

Of junk

Thinking that-

This is it?

Human

I complain more than I commend

I tear down more than I recommend

I expect good to come to me

When I give none

I want to be loved

Yet I cannot love

I don't want to give

Always want to get!

I want everyone to get me

I want to everyone to understand

But never took time to understand-

You-

I want everyone to be better !

But am I ?

In pursuit of happiness

The mortal man that I am

A sinner by default

A lecher by choice

A lover of pleasures

A secret admirer of the easy life

A greedy selfish soul

Always want more

The hunger never rests

I want the good life

I want the house on the hill

And of course

I want the Benz

I want it easy

I want to be fat

I want to be drunk

I want it all

I want it in abundance

The money

The women groveling

At my feet

I want to be king!

No

I want to be a god!

But all of that

Will it bring me

happiness?

Sinner

Dear me

Why do you have so much Hope

You know you are done for right,

You know all what you did right?

You can't go around dining with angels today

Tomorrow you are having a buffet with demons

Why don't you just pray for death

For you know that is what you deserve

Your soul is degenerating

You are dying!

Why do you carry your broken heart

Your broken dreams

Your decomposing flesh

Your fractured spirit

Like you yearn for a better life

When you have made your choice

And you have thrown it all away?

If I die today

I've been dancing with the devil

Whenever I'm able

I've become a rebel

But is this what I really want?

If I die today...

Have I been the man they want?

Have I been the brother they have got?

Am I the warrior I claim to be,

Or I am just a coward

A King crushed by fear

A King who couldn't be

What he was supposed to be ?

If I die today

Have I done what I really wanted?

Have I failed my mission?

Am I still a man on a mission

Or I have lost it,

And it's unreachable?

If I should die today,
Have I been the man I need to be?

The devil

His got horns they say, Protect us from him they pray,

He is a lion

And surely we are his prey,

He is a monster

Born out of desire I say

His yearn for power

His desire to be a god

Made us his prey

So then I ask this....,

Are we not the same...,

Are we even different from him,

If we yearn for the Glory?

Are we different...,

If we desire our own will?

Haven't we become like him

When we follow our hearts?

Hell Verse

Sin not...,

Hell is hot,

Be a sheep

Not a goat,

Hell is hot?

Oh my gosh

Do not take

The Lord's name

In vain

You will end up

In pain!

Who is your god

That created this hell?

Mine is Love

My God is love

But you say

From love

He created Hell?

My God is Love
He is going to burn you
Since you sinned
What really are we saying....
That he created us
To worship Him out of fear
And burn in hell
If we fail?
My God is Love
Made us to love Him
Out of fear of Hell?
His Son died
For us to burn Really....?
He was crucified
For us to end up braaied?
So are we worshipping Him
Out of Love,
Or we fear Him

Because He has a Hell?

Demon days

*I'm a cursed man,
I walk with a target on my back
Attracting trouble all the time
I don't care anymore-even if I die.*

*I'm a dark being,
I do dark deeds,
Failed myself
And I keep failing them....*

*An abrupt end- I so deserve,
If not-a crippling degenerating disease,
Death, please do me a favour-
Kill my demons-Death come to me.*

Demon Days

*I crossed the line a long time ago
I can't even see where I came from I'm so engulfed in this thrill,
This inglorious burn
This lust to please me!
What's next my king?
What's on your vile mind?
This world is sinking
I'm sinking with it!
Such a beautiful death,
A captain going down with his ship
A pilot going down with his plane,
I'm a crash dummy
Even if I wanted to stop
I can't ....
A destruction is inevitable
Chaos is my way-*

A death to these demons

Seems so fair.

---

*Consumed by my own desires,
My life is turned out to be
A strife a chase a struggle
For illicit forbidden pleasures.*

*I have become a bounty hunter
A ravenous wolf
A beast knowing no satisfaction
A blunt savage I only pillage and rape.*

*I have disabled my moral compass
Don't fear God
Don't fear Death
I despise my very own breath.*

*I am a torment
A torture a barren land
I have been warned
But I didn't heed it...*

....so hello Defeat!

Death

I'm aiming for the second one

Because I died a long time ago

I'm looking for an end

Because the moment

I began ending

Began a long time ago.

I'm looking for salvation

From this cycle,

This vicious circle

That I am running around

Its hugely annoying circumference,

Blaming it on circumstance-

Death is what I seek

Death is all I need

For I cannot take it anymore

Death please come to me

Because I'm already coming to you-

Lets meet!

Dear Mama

I'm not the boy you wanted me to be

I'm no longer the boy you nurtured,

I'm not the boy who suckled on your breast,

The boy you dreamed about being great,

I don't know what happened Mama,

I can't neither blame You nor Fate

But I have become something

That's close to Nothing

I have become a being

I love to hate,

Or maybe say someone

Who hates to love...

Mama I'm lost

But somehow

I don't wish to be found

Mama I have become

Someone you might hate,

*Someone you might love less
I feel like I need you to hold me
Mama
I have a dire need for your love
For the world has been unkind
And I too,
Have lost sense
I have become a brute
A savage of the worst Possible kind.*

Misery

You are a stab wound on my heart

You were my happiness

The only one I ever got,

You chose to end my flight

And shoot my gliding heart

You chose to leave me in misery

Because it's your nature

To destroy what you help built

Why don't you kill me already?

Don't leave for dead

Please leave me dead

Because I can't live in this misery!

Kill me off!

Kill me please

Don't leave me....

With a hint of hope,

End me please

I do not want to recover

I do not want to cope.

Desire

This is what led man to sin,

This is your downfall,

This is your death-

Yes first sin

And this is the seed of decay

The seed that sprouted death....

Darkness

*The darkness in me keeps on growing
Even if I try to enlighten it
It finds its way to engulf me,
I'm looking for salvation
Yet I'm so laid back
How can I get it
When I enjoy the night?
The loneliness in me is Alive
Consuming every happy memory
Of friends and family I have,
I'm lost in these woods,
They are so thick and dense
I'm surrounded by a lush darkness
Everything covered by complete blackness
I'm so puny and helpless
I just sit and wait....
For everything to come
To an emancipating end.*

Death note

*The one that I love most Has lost faith in me
The ones I love most
I have stopped fighting for them,
My end is the best
Beginning for them
I cannot and will not Allow them to carry me,
Each one will carry his load,
The good apostle said
“each one will carry his load”,
How I envy the dead
They have received
The receipt for their debt,
They have paid....
Death
It's the only thing
I live for,*

Not love
Not you not me
Death!
I hate my debt,
My baggage is huge
I wish to pay it in kind
For my Lord's ransom sacrifice
I keep belittling....
I keep being proud
I keep lying to myself
Like my father ,the Devil.....
Who knows
He knows he going to pay
And fulfill his debt
So Death,
Where are you?
Come take me,
I have failed living
I have stopped being Alive
Hurt those who love me
Hurt those that I love

I have no more to give
I fear my heart
And my hands are broken
I can no longer receive.

-----

Why me Jehovah?

Why did you have to choose me?

Why did I have to see You,

To know You

To love you-Oh Jehovah?

I am a disgusting human being

A loser a poser I'm dark

I have no will to live

I am seeking death,

Why me Jehovah?

I can no longer

Live with myself

I'm dead among the living

I'm a curse

To all those who love me,

I give them Hope

Yet I have nothing at all,

Not even "little faith"

Why me?

What's your point?

What's the point-

To let me know what is good

When I love being bad?

Strike me with lightning

End me,

I don't deserve to live.

Alive

I'm beginning to hate you

Life quote

Life quote

*Live to love,
Live to let love live,
Love to live
For love is life
And being alive
Is being in love,
Do not give in
Do not let hate reign,
Neither should you
Shudder when it thunders
Because the lightning
Is always before the thunder,
There is no fight here,
You have already won
Because you come first
You are the light-ning
Before the rumble
You are better than the thunder*

*Even if night reigns
Your light shines
And splits the dark skies
And then comes the thunder....
Yes what's good
Is followed by what's bad
But it doesn't mean
That the good in you is dead.*

Slow down

*You been trying too hard,
You will wear yourself out,
You been pummeling
Yourself for love
Trying to be perfect
Trying to be too sweet Running away from
Who you really are....
Stop trying to levitate,
Let it fall,
The excitement comes
When you will ascend again
What's the rush?
Love is forever
Ain't it...?
What's going to happen
When the sweetness runs out?
Slow down my friend*

*You are only competing With yourself,
How sad it is
To run away from your shadow
How futile it is
To chase after the wind
Let it happen easily
Do not try to be perfect,
Be real,
Be you!*

----

*I am a troubled soul
A believer cursed by naivety
I'm so gullible
For love and affection
So like a toddler
When it comes to the journey
I stumble and always fall,
I have a big beating
Bruised and battered heart
Full of scratches
Scars and swollen sores
The bigger it is
The harder it falls
If only they could Hear my silent screams
See my hate and hurt
See my midnight salty waterfalls
As I soak my face*

*In a pool of hurt
I never learn
That this fire burns
And no wonder
They look at me weird
As I wander
In this heartbreak wilderness
With all these burns.*

These are hard times

*These are nasty times,
Left alone to fend for yourself
You have scars from good fights
Mostly though are from ugly fights
You have won some,
You have lost some....
But the most important fight
Is the one you are fighting now
Don't let what they say or do
Deter you,
Neither will you turn left or right
Don't let their growls and screams
Scare you,
They are trying
Not to hear you roar!
You are a lioness*

*My queen,
Your pride is proud of you Remember who you are,
Who you are
Doesn't start from yesterday
Who you are is the person
That just inhaled
And exhaled right now....
Your pride is here
We will move with you
Who you are
Is now,
Not the person
Who you were yesterday.*

Redemption

*My very nature yearns for redemption
My endeavors have caused a rift
Between my beloved redemption and I
I have gone off course
Pursuing these forbidden pleasures
As I once had immersed myself completely
In the deep sea of Sin
Now I have grown tired of it
Now I want to live
For I have been chasing death
Hoping somehow the lie
Of being a wraith
May comfort my lost soul,
I have seen it all
Even the devil and his legions,
I have done it all
That has to be done*

*Under the sun
And I have been him,
The one
Some of you fear Yes
I have been the devil
And now I walk towards
The light
So as to cleanse....
Me myself and I,
From this ensnaring evil.*

I need to change my way of living

But can I stomach it?

I am the coward who Wants to be brave

But will I succeed?

I see all my failures

My mistakes

Will I win this time

Or it's another sad story

Of another epic failure?

What is the meaning of life

When you are trapped

In the same cycle?

What does it matter

To wish

To yearn for change

When you are still trapped

In the same cycle?

*Change is a pleasant thought
But becomes poison
A burden when you fail
Truly it's not our power
That can change our ways
But it comes from something greater
The Designer
So.....
Is his will,
My desire?*

Alive

I am blessed,

Like my hair,

My Hope

Keeps on growing

Even when its cut,

I am blind,

To the hurt

The disappointment

The anxiety

The pain

That comes from living

I am focused

Not on what I see

But

On what I am

About to grab-

*Because I know
That who I am
Is never
Who I have been,
I was dead
Yesterday ,
Today
I am Alive!*

---

I decided to live
I decided to breathe
Even if the stench of death
Has made the air foul
I decided to look up,
I didn't believe anymore

But then
I decided to win,
Even if I'm losing right now,
I have decided to live
And be me,
Not anyone else
But me.....
The best version of me
I have decided to be Alive .

I'm beginning to hate you

Insolent fool

You have begun,

Listening to your foolish heart,

Contemplating on its

Foolish desires

And setting your mind

Towards its foolishness,

What did I tell you

About leaning on

Your own understanding?

Men's wisdom

Is foolishness to God!

Or because of experience

You are wiser than your Maker?

Such arrogance

Where has it gotten you so far?

*You are a wondering vagabond
Because of listening to yourself
Instead of listening to God!*

Your head has no rest

It plans and plans

But ill advised

It plans naught

The battle you are fighting

Was already fought

Continue in you ways

You will find that

You already lost!

You are nothing without Him

You are everything with Him

So don't make me hate you

Don't make us lose

We do not have anymore materials

For making anymore tombstones,

We have to win this war

This is what we are living for

The war s bigger than you

*It is for your salvation,
Their salvation
And his Vindication
Stand up and fight
For your God's sovereignty
He chose you
Now don't you
Make me hate you
End what you begun
Fight till life is won
Show Him that He has won.*

Get up!

You were not designed

To wallow and weep

No wonder your Maker

Gave you two legs

To stand tall and firm

On your feet,

How dare you belittle

Your King's sacrifice

How dare you

Make his effort shallow?

He loves his loyal ones,

Oh now because

You have seen a trial

You think

You are one of the damned?

He loves you

He paid the price

Death is not your end

Praise and worship is,

So stop this foolishness

Show me who you worship

Are you

A child of life,

Or a child of death?

Love

Inceptions

Untitled

Evergreen

The fall

The Fall 2.0

I hate you

Woman

My lady

How she would have loved you

*Your eyes tell me a beautiful story,
A story that has a happy ending,
An ending undeserved but well received,
For this world is full sorrow and grief
Yet you-you promise me an island of relief
Your eyes force on a tender calmness on me
Telling me everything will be alright
Showing me happiness telling me this is right
I see sunshine in your eyes
A great tomorrow is ahead of me
A great relief, a satisfying bliss*

*Those eyes take me away
Floating adrift in love
Ebbs and flos waves of bliss
Beauty satisfaction
Passionate inferno of affection
There are a haven a hope
A reality to all my beliefs*

*Your eyes escalate me,
I feel loved and free
Exuberant subliminally high
A calm soft breeze
In the summer
A moist in the air
Hope on the arid land
The wait of the rain
Is about to end.*

My world is about to be relieved

Life has come to the dead

An uplift a height

I have been in need of Those eyes your eyes

Glimmer with a hope of love

Of the highest grade

In love with you

Evergreen

*My heart has been rooted in your love ,
You are like an underground river
That I have managed to tap
And only I have the privilege to drink,
I'm well nourished by your fertile care
Your tender compassion nourishes me
I'm as comfortable as a baby
In his mother's arms
Secure like a young child
Holding his father's hand,
You are my foundation
You are my core
As long as you are there,
I will not fall,
I will stand vibrant lush Evergreen,*

Yes with your love
I am drought free
Always satisfied.....
Evergreen .

A flower in the desert

I found a flower in the desert,

I fell in love with it

Because it was one of its kind

And more.....

In the blazing heat she gave me hope

She withstood the heat,

Even the sun became shy

That it called it a day and went away

Then it came to the blinding night

But to my amazement ,

My flower glowed in the dark

And embarrassed the black...,

....that it summoned the light.

*Then came a sandstorm,
Tried to take her away
But her beauty tamed the beast,
An enraged wind became a breeze.*

*I found a flower in the desert
And chose to take it away,
Loved it with all my heart
And now she beautifies me...*

....night and day!

The fall

You,

You are the reason

I am in this mess,

You are the reason

I am losing it

I found love in madness

I found love in you

Your eyes

Your eyes are my pleasure

They beam with such adoration

Of the man I am,

They give me hope

Of a love

That only I can comprehend

My levitation in loneliness

Has come to an abrupt

And unkind end,

*The glide and the drift
Has ended
And gravity
Has come to the rescue,
Now begins the fall....
The falling back to the ground
Now comes the dive
As I slowly sink
Into loving you.*

*I have been drifting away
From love
Levitating
Enjoying my solitude
Enduring the lack of gravity
Floating in space...
Then she came along
Like a supernova,
She exploded
With burning love
And her meteorite debris
Bombarded my heart
Mind and soul,
All that I was ended
And I began
The almighty fall*

*I began to feel everything,
I was shrewd
A wise man in my ways,
Cautious and defensive,
Now I am open
And defenseless
Gravity has befriended me
The cordless kite
Has been struck-
Down it goes
Into the dreaded abyss
Known to men as love,
Used to be free
Used to be the one for all,
Now I am the one,
Who can't escape
This abyss' free-fall.*

I hate you

*You know what you do to me-
You torture and burn my soul
Make my heart beat so fast
That it jumps up and down
And unsettles my insides....
I hate you for this and more.*

*I hate you so bad that it hurts
I hate because you are the one
That could only melt my icebox
Turn my blackheart
Into a vibrant red
Made it beat when it was dead.*

*I hate you for making my body
Yearn so bad for yours
Make my brain think
Every second of you
And make me do things that I shun
Just to see you smile.*

*I hate you , I hate you....
I hate that I only love you,
I hate how your beauty hypnotizes me
Your touch petrifies me
I hate you so much
That I love you more than I love myself.*

Woman

*From man she was made
A better version a helper
A blessing a complement
From man's rib she came.*

*Born to be better Tender loving caring
So far from being bitter,

*She is the missing piece A haven a paradise
A pleasant dream of peace
And from man she came.*

*She was made from flesh and bones
Completion of a sacred bond
A woman the better man....*

Comes from man's bone.

As I write

I have one on my mind

As I enlighten

She shines bright in my mind,

As I walk

She walks beside me

As I sleep

She is beside me,

I feel her,

Oh that tender skin

Oh those beautiful juicy lips

Oh my the shape of her body,

*I smell her
That scent,
That lovely scent
That beautiful sweet scent,*

*I see her
Those eyes
Those bedazzling eyes
That unique beauty,*

*I hear her
When she talks
That majestic sound
That voice...that sexy voice,*

*As I breathe
I breathe for her
Her breath is mine
My breath is hers,*

Oh by the way

Who is she?

She is my lady

My heart and soul.

How she would have loved you!

*My complement-
The way you have cared
For this immature soul
Is nothing short of a divine call,
My mother would have smiled gently,
As she saw and adored and smiled at you,
You beautiful, beautiful soul.*

*She would have invited you
To a secret dinner !
A meal full of warmth
And funny stories about a boy....
Who is the man you are looking at,
Telling you all the short cuts
To the journey
Of the center of my happiness-
To the center of my heart!*

*She would have embraced you Told you to be strong Warned you that he is a silly boy
But he loves deeply
And he is headstrong
But once he forgives he forgets....*

*She would have smiled at you!
Told you that you are one of a kind
You have unique taste
For beauty,
Your heart is so big
And also naughty,
You have a keen eye
Because you saw something
That some would never see.*

*She would have loved you!
Like you were her own daughter-
Praised the One in the heavens
That she had met someone like you,*

*And loved you till death
Like she loved me,
She would have seen
That her little prince
Will finally be a king
Because he has found himself
A beautiful lovely Queen.*

Ascension

Better,

The word even scares me

Down to my bone marrow,

How can I be better,

When I see that

I am a filthy swine,

Enjoying the mire,

Enjoying what's far from fine?

How can I be better

When all I see is the dirt

And feel the thickness

On my unfeeling hide?

Better...

Is what I want to be,

He forgave me abundantly

Why can't I forgive myself?

I have to be better

Accept that I have sinned
He has thrown my sins away
They are far from me,
So as I wonder
If I will be better,
With his love and grace
I am better,
Even if I do not appear to be.

Ascension

Ascension

He has cleansed me,
He has washed away

My sins,

He keeps calling me

All I have to do

Is listen,

Don't doubt,

Do!

Just follow-

His yoke is bearable

His commands are mild

His love is forever

He loves you,

So should you!

Heal me Lord
My sinful nature
Has left me
Down bad,
My darkness
Has consumed me
I fear
There is little left,
My goodness
Is full of maladies
It's sickening
I wish it to end,
My darkness-
A sickness
I love to appease
Heal me Lord
For I am sick

My bones ache
Not because
Of a physical disease
But my marrow hurts
Because of the pains
That I inflict
On my godly spirit
Heal me Lord
For your son
Is sick.

I see the work of your hands,
I believe in you
I sometimes lose yourself
But I always come back to You
You have given
Your all to me,
It's my turn
To give my all to You,
I have been a bad boy
I have been a foolish man
I have been a stupid soul
But I heard your call
And vowed to follow
Even if I fall
I know,
That you can never Let me go

You can never Lock the door
On the one you call,
Unlike anyone else
You saw me as a cell
Now I am a son
A brother
A father
With you Jah
I will never fail.

My sins and stains ,
Have been washed away
I have been uprooted
From the field of the cursed
I am being replanted
Sinking my roots
Into the blessed,
This is what it means
This is what it is
The love of the Father grows
Day by Day,
All my flaws fall
I am being made anew
As to be a light
So I can also Light a few.

The kingdom

How so true it is,
We do not even have the power
Neither do we have the knowledge
We do not have the love,
For all we have
Is a hate for someone
Or something,
We are selfish
No wonder the power
To control anything
Concerning someone's life
We do not have,
He has the love-
He is selfless
So lets Him reign

Let Him have The power,
To control everything!

Job

My God,
I plead with you,
Show me that you
Are still on my side,
I face the world
I face them with conviction
Yet in my mind
Questions reign-
What have I done
To deserve this?
Have I done
Something to offend you?
I know I haven't
I have kept my integrity
But why this Calamity upon me?
I do not want to curse you

I do not want to leave your side

But dear Jehovah

Have you left me?

I know you loyal

I know you are love

If this is my lesson

If this is my test

I will stand by you

I can never curse

My Lifegiver

I will seek you out

My God,

It is just a phase

Pain is part of our lives

You Jah

You are my Solace.

Take care

Take care of me

My Lord

Take care of my loved ones,

Bless the work of their hands,

Bless their efforts and endeavours

Do not let them wander

in the wilderness

Make their hearts

Yearn for the light

Let them know and understand

Your ways

Let them come to love you

Let them come to love each other

For we are one

Show them you love them

Comfort them
Renew their hope
Day after day
Take care of my beloved
Take care of my family Jah
Guide us to You
Fortify our love for you
Fortify our love for each other
We need each other
There are distressing times
Take care of us Jah
I plead with you
In Jesus name
AMEN

Let your kingdom come

The system of things is appalling,

vindicate your name Jah

Show them that you took your time while you were creating all this,

Cleanse us

Renew us

Revive us

For we are tired

End this cycle

We need You,

Let your kingdom come.

My Father,

I come upon your throne

As your son

Humbling myself

Because I know

You are my Maker,

You are my Creator,

The one I worship

And live to glorify.

I know I am a sinner

But I also know

My obligation to live,

I came upon you

Seeking redemption

Seeking forgiveness

And seeking repentance

I know you are a loving God,

You want me to live,

You are a kind master

You want me to serve you,

So I ask for a heart

A heart that yearns to serve you

I ask for a mind

That wants to serve you,

Grant me the power

To be a stronger man

For these are trying times,

In my endeavors

I have become a devil

I have become someone

You might not like

I have left you,
Seeking out my own desires
Feeding off on my foolishness
For that I am sorry
My God my Father
And Dear Friend

I have come to you
Oh Jah
I have seen your works
Make me want your will Mold me
To be the man
I should be

For Jah I want to live
Jehovah I do not want to die
I want to see all-
All that you have promised
I want to see
My beloved ones again
Those who perished in death,

I want to see
Justice prevail
For the wicked have Lived luxuriant lives
They have prospered
In this time of darkness

I am not dark Jehovah

Give me strength

Light up my roadway

I need to come to you

For deep down

My Lord

I love you deeply

I pray your kingdom comes

I pray your Son

Rules over the heavens and the earth

And glorify your name

I pray you cure us

Of this wanting heart

I pray your kingdom

Purifies us

I pray it heals my broken spirit

I pray I will make it

Guide us Jehovah

Protect us

We will prevail

With your blessing

I love you my Father

I leave this prayer

In your Son's name

Our King Lord Jesus
